

VFW YOUTH ACTIVITIES CHAIRPERSON'S GUIDE

The Role of the Chairperson

The VFW's chairpersons do more than just plan projects to improve their communities. They also recruit volunteers, build relationships with community leaders, organize partnerships with civic groups and promote the VFW.

You Are the Point Person

A program chairperson should understand one important fact right from the outset: You are the Post's point person in your community. As chairperson you will be your Post's liaison to:

- school teachers and administrators community leader
- local military personnel
- city government officials
- members of civic groups
- members of the media
- your fellow veterans

Seek out these new relationships. When it comes time to recruit volunteers or you need specialized expertise for Post projects, these community contacts will prove invaluable.

Project an outgoing, friendly personality. Speak positively about your Post, your community and your projects. Articulate your thoughts and plans clearly, concisely and coherently. Remember, you represent not only your Post, but the entire VFW organization as well.

Reporting Your Activities

You may have heard it said that "the job's not over until the paperwork is done!" That is especially true of VFW Programs.

A chairperson must report their Post activities in their respective areas at least twice each year. Check with your respective Department chairperson to learn what should be reported and in what form. Documentation of your programmatic efforts is the thing that ensures the VFW's reputation and our not-for-profit status.

Master Organizational Skills

As chairperson, your talents must be varied. Consequently, your organizational skills should be fully developed. Some of your specific duties include

- recruiting and maintaining a pool of active volunteers
- identifying and initiating programs needed in your community
- motivating your Post members, community volunteers and sponsors involved in your various projects
- recognizing your volunteers efforts organizing and maintaining records, photos and newspaper clippings that document your act
- reporting to your Department chairperson the volunteer hours, dollars donated by the VFW, Auxiliary and Cootie members, and other information requested.

Through the contacts you've developed in your community, cooperate with other civic or fraternal groups. They may already be involved in community service programs you would like to undertake, or they may be eager to help with projects that you've planned. Also identify resources at your Post, talk with members and find out what special skills or hobbies they may have.

Scouting & JROTC

Why should a Post become involved?

Few youth programs provide a greater benefit to a Post than involvement with a Scouting or JROTC unit. Both programs annually produce individuals with an appreciation for patriotism, civic responsibility and the likelihood of future military service. As Boy and Girl Scouts, Sea Scouts, Venture Scouts and JROTC cadets, these individuals are often a tremendous asset to a Post by helping with Post projects such as placing flags on graves on Veterans Day and Memorial Day, helping with Post maintenance and fix-up efforts, helping distribute "Buddy"® Poppies, providing color guards and assisting with VFW public events.

As young adults, participants in these programs are much more likely than others of their age group to enter the military and, ultimately, become eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

How does a Post become involved?

Aside from sponsoring or chartering a unit, there are literally hundreds of ways for a Post to serve the youth in their community through Scouting and JROTC and reap the benefits. Your Post may have individuals who would like to serve as leaders. Your Post may be able to serve as a meeting place or a place for a drill team to practice. Your Post may wish fund a unit or individual project. In turn, Scouts and cadets can fulfill their community service and civic requirements by helping with Post projects. It is truly a win-win situation for the Post and the youth of your community.

So, what do I do now?

For Scouting, you should make contact with the VFW Department Scouting Chairperson in your Department (state.) These are VFW members who are heavily involved in Scouting and have committed themselves to growing Scouting within their respective Departments. They will be happy to assist your Post and its members in becoming involved with this important youth program. For JROTC, your state's Adjutant may be able to help identify a JROTC unit in your area.

VFW members of Posts can request additional information about Scouting & ROTC by calling the VFW Programs office at 816.968.2787 or email a request to scouting@vfw.org.

Youth Cadet Awards Program

VFW awards for special recognition of outstanding achievement and exceptional leadership are available for Junior and Senior ROTC programs, Naval Sea Cadets and Civil Air Patrol Cadets. Other Youth Activities

The VFW's history with youth sports goes back decades. VFW formerly offered one of the largest marble tournaments in the U.S. Although marble shooting has become a lost ability, VFW Posts have supported youth with team and individual sports like competitive shooting, ice hockey, baseball, basketball, softball, boxing, wrestling, and almost any sport you can name.

Like most VFW Post activities, the key is to identify an interest or need in the youth of your community and offer your Post and its members as a resource. Efforts can be as brief as raising a few dollars to provide equipment to sponsoring a team and providing coaches.

The purpose of all these endeavors is two-fold. First, it encourages young people to pursue physical activity that also builds character. Second, it connects young people with America's veterans and their families thereby providing an opportunity to pass on our values of service, civic responsibility and patriotism to the next generation. These kinds of connections also offer a tremendous opportunity to promote our scholarship programs.

Various states have a history of VFW involvement in youth sports. Check with your Department office to determine what other Posts are doing and how your Post can become involved.

VFW Department Scouting Chairperson

The backbone of Scouting in the VFW is the VFW Scouting Team. These VFW members are deeply involved in Scouting, most with decades of experience.

Appointed by their Department Commander, they are responsible for promoting Scouting in their state, and are available to encourage Posts to sponsor and support units and individual Scout projects. They should be the Department's "expert" on all phases of Scouting. Departments may have multiple members of the VFW Scouting Team, but every Department should have at least one individual to promote the values of scouting to youth and the VFW itself.
