

Thanksgiving Day Message

Dear Comrades, Sisters, and Brothers

On Thanksgiving Day, I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to each of you for your service, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to our nation. As members of the VFW, we share a special bond forged through our experiences and dedication—one that remains strong no matter where life takes us.

As we gather with family and friends on Thanksgiving Day and weekend, let's take a moment to reflect on the blessings of freedom, camaraderie, and community that we enjoy because of our shared service. We have faced challenges together and supported one another in times of need, and for that, I am genuinely thankful.

May this Thanksgiving be filled with peace, warmth, and the joyful company of loved ones. Let us honor those who are unable to be home with their families on this holiday and remember our brothers and sisters still serving around the world.

Thank you for your continued courage and dedication. Wishing you all a safe, happy, and meaningful Thanksgiving.

With respect and appreciation,

Reinold E. Yahnka
State Commander
Veterans of Foreign Wars
Department of Michigan